Victory or Death End Notes

Works Cited

Touring the Battlefield

Chapter One: The Darkest Hour: Fall 1776

Page 4: “as the Congress desire it” – George Washington to the Continental Congress, June 16, 1775.

“The rebellious war now levied” – King George III Address to Parliament, October 27, 1775.

23,000 men – Chernow, Washington. pg. 244

“I thought all London was afloat.” – Chernow, Washington. pg. 235

“The Hessians and our brave Highlanders” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 97

“Are these the men” – McCullough, 1776. pg. 212

“actuated by the most glorious cause that mankind” - McCullough, 1776. pg. 239

3,000 men – McCullough, 1776. pg. 243

5,000 men – Freeman, George Washington. pg. 241

6,000 British troops – McCullough, 1776. pg. 251

“My dear Reed: I received” McCullough, 1776. pg. 254

“The state was overrun” – Dwyer, William M. The Day is Ours! New York: Viking Press, 1983. pg. 181

“a girl of thirteen years” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! Pg. 187

“there have been other” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 179

1,500 soldiers – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 5

Chapter Two

“I hope this is the dark part” – McCullough, 1776. pg. 247
http://www.loc.gov/teachers/classroommaterials/presentationsandactivities/presentations/timeline/amrev/north/plains.html

http://www.loc.gov/teachers/classroommaterials/presentationsandactivities/presentations/timeline/amrev/north/plains.html

http://founders.archives.gov/documents/Washington/03-07-02-0228

http://www.loc.gov/teachers/classroommaterials/presentationsandactivities/presentations/timeline/amrev/north/plains.html

Page 19: “many of them were destitute” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 130

Page 19: “the route was easily traced” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 210

Page 19: “a man staggered out” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 133

Page 20: “These are the times that” – Paine, Thomas. The American Crisis, December, 1776.
http://www.ushistory.org/paine/crisis/c-01.htm

Page 20: “full power to order” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 144

http://founders.archives.gov/?q=Volume%3AWashington-03-07&s=1511311112&r=396

Page 21: his army of 5,000 – Freeman, George Washington. pg. 283, 297

Page 23 “some enterprise must” – Col. Joseph Reed to George Washington, December 22, 1776.
http://founders.archives.gov/?q=pomroy&s=1511311111&r=15

http://founders.archives.gov/documents/Washington/03-07-02-0228

Page 27: “ten days more will” – George Washington to John Hancock, December 20, 1776.
http://founders.archives.gov/?q=ten%20days%20more%20will%20put%20an%20end%20to%20the%20existence%20of%20our%20Army&s=1111311111&sa=&r=7&sr=

Chapter Three
http://founders.archives.gov/?q=Volume%3AWashington-03-07&s=1511311112&r=325

https://founders.archives.gov/documents/Washington/03-07-02-0329

Page 30: about 2,400 Continental – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 208
Page 30: 1,500 man Hessian – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 396
Page 31: 800 Pennsylvania militiamen – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 209
Page 31: 1,200 Philadelphia Associators (Pennsylvania militia) and 600 Continentals – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 209
Page 33: “Victory or Death” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 220
Page 33: “functioning more” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 366

Chapter Four

Page 37: “It was as severe a night” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 133
Page 37: “country clowns” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 420
Page 37: “Let them come.” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 204
Page 39: “stentorian lungs” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 218
Page 39: “every man had sixty” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 207
Page 41: “not to worry” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. 85
Page 41: “After a while it” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 212
Page 43: “perseverance accomplished” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 233
Page 44: “This made me despair” – George Washington to John Hancock, December 27, 1776.
http://founders.archives.gov/?q=Volume%3AWashington-03-07&s=1511311112&r=356

Chapter Five

Page 47: “We began an apparently” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 247
Page 48: “many of our soldiers” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 247

Chapter Six

Page 57: “we advanced” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 258
Page 58: “these Guards we forc’d” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 371
Page 60: “I am willing to go upon oath” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 426
Page 63: “position was an exposed” – Wilkinson, Memoirs of My Own Times. pg. 129
Page 65: “All who are my” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 246

Chapter Seven

Page 83: “The weather was” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 255
Page 87: “it is the damd Hessians” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 259-260
Page 87: “are the worst troops” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 260

Chapter Eight

Page 91: “worn down” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! Pg. 293.

Chapter Nine

Page 98: “they were to kill” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 293
Page 98: 1,000 men – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 313.
Page 102: “They came on a third time.” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 324
Page 102: “dead bodies lay thicker” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 332
Page 104: “bag the old fox” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 313
Page 104: “If ever there was” – Wilkinson, Memoirs of My Own Times. pg. 138

Chapter Ten

Chapter Eleven

Page 125: “Our fire was most” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 331
Page 127: “was inhumanly murdered” – Battle of Princeton Mapping Project, Appendix 24) Page 127: “having received” – Battle of Princeton Mapping Project, Appendix 111 and 112)

Page 128: “he received a wound” – Battle of Princeton Mapping Project, Appendix 146 and 147)

Page 129: “The enemies fire” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 440

Page 130: “From these stacks” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 440

Page 130: “At this moment” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 347

Page 132: “It is a fine” – Wilkinson, Memoirs of My Own Times. pg. 145

Page 132: “My old associates” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 331

Page 132: “I had a most dismal” – Battle of Princeton Mapping Project, Appendix 60)

Page 133: 232 of the 446 – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 413

Page 134: “the enemy were” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 451

Chapter Twelve

Page 139: “Though we were” – Dwyer, The Day is Ours! pg. 367

Page 139: “Yesterday the remains” – Battle of Princeton Mapping Project, Appendix 118)

Page 140: “This day the body” – Cecere, Second to No Man. pg. 167

Page 141: 14,000 effectives – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 366

Chapter Thirteen

Page 143: “It is with much concern” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 482

Page 144: “America is never to” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 360

Page 144: “the rebels carrying off” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 373
Page 144: “had a fair prospect” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 482

Page 145: “the two late actions” – Stryker, The Battles of Trenton and Princeton. pg. 472

Page 145: “This has given them” – Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. pg. 260

Appendix: Memory

Page 153: “of all the pivotal moments” - Fischer, Washington’s Crossing. Editor’s Note.